

Akona Honors the Spirit of Adventure

You believe in living life large. You want to savor every moment.

You meet life head-on, on your own terms. You know that life is what you make of it.

You're not one of those poor souls who ho-hum their way through a boring, lackluster existence. You don't believe in just letting life happen to you, you believe in making life happen for you.

You're an Adventurer.

At Akona, we understand and share your passion for life, for adventure. We too believe in being bold in grasping our destiny.

That's how we've journeyed so far, so quickly.

We've gone from being a tiny start-up company in 1994 to today's proud producer of the world's most popular line of gear bags. Going from the bottom of the heap to the world leader in our field in just those few years didn't happen by accident. It happened by understanding what adventurers just like you want and need. It happened by constantly striving for perfection in design, construction and materials.

Quite simply, our gear bags have become the world's best selling because they are the world's best.

And it's because we share your passion for adventure that we understand that life's adventures don't just happen. They take planning, effort, dedication, sometimes a bit of sacrifice – and the proper equipment.

After all, the most exciting dive in the most exotic locale can be tainted by gear that just isn't up to the demands. And that trip to your next adventure can be made more tiring, tedious and difficult with gear bags that aren't durable and plane-friendly.

Little things? Perhaps.

But why let little things get in the way of life's grand adventures?

At Akona Adventure Gear, it's our mission to produce dive accessories you can rely and depend upon. Accessories that will enhance your adventures, not get in the way.

Our track record indicates that we've been very successful at doing just that.
