

Let's Be Honest...Pet Ownership Comes With a Few Headaches!

You love your pets. And there's nothing in the world quite like the unconditional love and boundless trust you receive from your pet.

But though you wouldn't give up your pet for anything on earth, let's just face it: there are some aspects of pet ownership that downright stink. Literally!

- Much as you love your pet, sometimes it's just hard to find the time to take your pet out for some fresh air and exercise. (And many pet owners end up feeling guilty about that.)
- If you're like many pet owners, you just can't help worrying about your pet when you're away.
- And we know that you're not exactly thrilled with the never-ending job of scooping poop!

Even with the downsides, pet ownership is a wonderful experience. But we can help to make it even better.

Pressed for Time? Leaving Your Pet Home Alone? No Need for Guilt!

Dogs need attention. They need outside activity. They need exercise.

Regularly!

But we all live hectic lifestyles nowadays. Sometimes you just don't have any spare time to give. And sometimes, you're just drained of energy. Taking your poochies for a brisk, jaunty walk is just about the last thing you feel like doing.

So let us do it. After all, it's what we do!

We'll help keep your pets healthy and happy with regular walking sessions when you just don't have the time or energy.

And if you need to leave your pets, whether for work or to slip away for a fun outing, we'll keep them company.

We'll make sure that your pets aren't lonely, and that they don't get into mischief. They'll still miss you while you're gone, of course – but not all that much. They'll be having a great time with our sitter!

And you'll be concentrating on your work, or enjoying your time away. You won't be feeling guilty about leaving your pet, or having those little nagging concerns in the back of your mind wondering if everything's OK.

Everything will be OK. We'll see to it.

Let Us Scoop the Poop

It's a fact of life: dogs gotta 'go.' And when your dog goes, it's going in your yard! That leaves you with 2 choices:

- Regularly patrol your yard, nose wrinkled and stomach heaving, scooping up that poop yourself.
- Or just let it go (C'mon – that's just nasty! And that leaves you tippy-toeing around in your backyard like you're looking for land mines!)

But there's a third choice: let us keep your yard clean!

We'll swing by up to 3 times per week and take care of your poop scooping for you. We'll not only scoop the poop from your yard, we'll completely remove it from your property. It won't even be stinking up your trash.

We'll be happy to take over your litter box cleaning, too.

And our prices are much less than you might guess for such loathsome labor. Hey, we're used to it!

We're Experts; Your Pets are in Good Hands

Yeah, we love animals. But that's not enough to qualify us to do what we do. Our employees are experts at animal care.

We ALL receive regular training from an animal behaviorist, so we're able to handle all kinds of behavioral issues. And we're also trained to administer pet first aid should it become necessary. We're trained to handle things like:

- Pet CPR
- Rescue Breathing
- Choking Management
- Handling Bites and Stings
- Senior Care

Should your pet have some sort of a problem on our watch, we'll know what to do.

We're Pet People...

Our employees are all pet people – we love animals. We GET animals.

And if we may be so brash as to say: they love us. Contrary to the unfortunate phrase, 'dumb animals' are NOT dumb! They know when they're around a pet person. They know when they're liked. So they soon become comfortable with us. And we quickly become great friends.

In fact, one of our customers recently mentioned that her dogs acted like they'd just found a long-lost friend when we showed up to walk them.

But here's a little secret: We were just as happy to see them!

We're eager to make friends with your pet. To get the friendship started, just give us a call at xxx-xxx-xxxx. Or visit us online at www.everythingpet.net.
